

The Interpreter Foundation
Brigham Young University Department of Ancient Scripture
Book of Mormon Central

Tracing Ancient Threads in the Book of Moses

MAY 1-2, 2020

251 TANNER BUILDING
BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY

FRIDAY

MAY 1, 7:00 PM

Elder Bruce C. Hafen (emeritus)
Sister Marie K. Hafen

CONFERENCE ORGANIZERS

Jeffrey M. Bradshaw, David R. Seely, John W. Welch, Kent P. Jackson, Session Chair

What Is A Seed But Sunlight Sent Into The Future?

Alisha Marie Anderson | United States | Photograph on canvas
These photographed seeds, appearing as stars, come from the cones of the Utah juniper and are arranged according to the stars that appeared in the early-spring sky in Palmyra, New York, 1820. "Stars and seeds: always sending light into the future," said Anderson.

SATURDAY

MAY 2, 9:00 AM

Matthew L. Bowen
Jeffrey M. Bradshaw
David Calabro
Terry L. Givens
Jeff Lindsay
Jared Ludlow
Noel Reynolds
John W. Welch

If temporary COVID-19 restrictions preclude gathering on campus, we will be holding the conference virtually.
Late-breaking news will be posted on: interpreterfoundation.org/conferences/2020-book-of-moses-conference